Congratulations
to
Chinese Canadian National Council

Dear Friends:

As the Member of Provincial Parliament for Markham, I would like to congratulate the Chinese Canadian National Council on their 25th Anniversary.

The Chinese Canadian National Council is an important organization that helps to promote human rights, social justice and equal representation for the Chinese community in Ontario and in Canada. They also encourage and educate through the various programs they offer to foster an appreciation and recognition of the political and socioeconomic contributions of the Chinese community. CCNC's is also committed to advocating for Chinese representation on all levels of government which is important for the democratic process in our society. They are to be commended for their dedication and hard work for all that they have accomplished over the years.

Once again, I'd like to congratulate the members, volunteers, staff of CCNC on your 25th Anniversary and I wish you continued success in all your future endeavours.

Yours truly,

Tony Wong

Dear Friends:

My warmest congratulations to the Chinese Canadian National Council on the occasion of its 25th year Silver Anniversary.

CCNC serves an important and vital role in the Chinese community in Canada. Since its inception in 1980, CCNC has been a strong and influential voice for social change and human rights.

I'd like to take this opportunity to congratulate the members, volunteers, staff, and friends of CCNC on this wonderful occasion. Your leadership and your tireless efforts are an inspiration to us all.

Sincerely,

Greetings from Olivia Chow

I'd like to take this opportunity to congratulate the Chinese Canadian National Council on your 25th Anniversary.

CCNC has made significant contributions to the Chinese community in Toronto and throughout Canada. From the days of the W5 campaign that started the organization to the continued advocacy for Head Tax Redress, you have been leaders in social justice activism for all Chinese Canadians.

The face of Canada is evolving, with an increasing immigrant population and growing diverse cultures. There is more a need for governments to adapt in order to better serve our communities.

The work of CCNC has always been and will continue to be there to push for systemic change. This Silver Anniversary is a true testament of your commitment to equal rights and social justice for everyone.

The Chinese Canadian National Council is an organization that has been home to a number of community activists and continues to provide leadership to our future activists. Your continued effort to improve our communities and to strive for social change is truly valued.

Once again, congratulations to the Chinese Canadian National Council on your 25th Anniversary milestone.

A Message from the Mayor

It is my pleasure to extend greetings and congratulations to the Chinese Canadian National Council on the occasion of your 25th Anniversary.

The Chinese Canadian National Council has been at the forefront of social justice, equality rights and civic participation. It is the work of organizations such as CCNC that move our society forward to a more just and equitable society.

Your organization is an important voice within the progressive Chinese community. Your work has been crucial in the representation of the Chinese community in Toronto and across Canada. The continued commitment of your organization remains vital to the causes of social justice, equality and human rights for all.

Congratulations to the organizers and volunteers for all their hard work, dedication, and commitment in putting together this silver anniversary celebration.

On behalf of City Council and all the residents of our great City of Toronto, congratulations to the Chinese Canadian National Council on your 25th Anniversary.

Yours truly,

President's Address

This year marks the 25th Anniversary of the Chinese Canadian National Council (CCNC). Since our formation in April 1980, CCNC has worked to advance the principles of equity and social justice in the political, social and economic spheres of Canadian society. Over these past 25 years, there have been many changes and events that have impacted our community. CCNC has remained true to its mandate of working for the equitable participation of Chinese Canadians. Most recently, we have developed a National Pan Asian Canadian Network, a collective voice for Asian Canadian communities across Canada to fight racism and discrimination, and to bring forward our issues for national debate and dialogue. This is also been happening at the local level through our chapters across Canada to develop inter-community cooperation, dialogue and support. CCNC has also lead the fight for redress of the Head Tax and Exclusion Act. We have seen high and low points over the 20+ year redress campaign. CCNC has worked in coalition with other community groups across Canada to keep redress in the public domain. Most recently we have assisted in organizing various victims groups including the Ontario Coalition of Chinese Head Tax Payers and Families. They along with other head tax payer groups across Canada are continuing the campaign through community mobilization and public forums, and pressing for a just and honorable resolution. As we reflect on the first 25 years, we can be proud of what CCNC and its members and supporters have accomplished in advancing equity and social justice for the Chinese Canadian community. Let's work together to make the next 25 years just as inspiring for the next generation.

今年是全加華人協進會(平權會- CCNC)第25年的周年紀念。自1980年4月建會以來,全國的華裔加人成員下至區級,省級,上到國家級都一直齊心協力,共同推動加國對政治,社會及經濟各領域的公平原則。25年來,不斷的變革和政治事件沖擊著我們的社群,CCNC始終忠於它的使命,為華裔加人能夠在加國社會擁有平等參與權而奮鬥。最近,我們開發了全亞裔加人網絡,收集來自全國各亞裔族群的意見,提高社會對我們這些族群在種族歧視和偏見問題方面的重視,並將問題進行全國性的辯論和對話。在各地區分會,我們也以同樣方式從微觀層面促進類似的族群間的合作,對話,和相互支持。此外,CCNC還繼續為平反問題而鬥爭。在過去的25年間,由CCNC的部分創始人於上世紀八十年代就開始發起的平反運動歷經了數度高潮與低潮。CCNC與加國其他社會群體一起努力保持公眾對平反問題的了解,並通過社會運動,請願,族群會議,游說政府等多種方式爭取平反,甚至向司法部門尋求平反途徑。最近,CCNC協助安省人頭稅苦主及其家屬成立了安省人頭稅苦主及家屬聯會。他們和加國其他人頭稅組織一起,繼續進行社區動員和公眾論壇的運動,並通過正當途徑要求在談判桌上就平反問題進行談判。回顧CCNC在25年中走過的路程,我們為CCNC及其成員和支持者為華裔加人族群爭取平等權所取得的輝煌成就而倍感驕傲。為了鼓舞我們的後代,也為了前輩們曾為我們所做的一切,讓我們齊心協力,共同為下一個25年奮鬥吧!

Presidents' Address

Twenty-five years strong and we've come a long way of new challenges and achievements for the Toronto Chapter of CCNC. The commitment of our board, volunteers and membership proves grassroots advocacy is our greatest strength. CCNCTO is a recipient of the 2005 City of Toronto William P. Hubbard Award for Race Relations. Our success is built on the interdependence of volunteers, board of directors, staff and community partners who share our vision in social justice and human rights. We started the year by meeting with the new Toronto Chief of Police Bill Blair to address the racial profiling issue in response to an article on Marijuana Grow-Ops. As a result, CCNCTO is now a member of the Police Chief's Advisory Council. CCNCTO is dedicated to labour and human rights. An art auction and photo exhibit launched for Chinese women garment workers to raise public awareness on labour rights issues. CCNCTO encourages Chinese Canadian youth in civic engagement and advocacy. The Monkey King Collective (MKC) is built on capacity of youth interested in social justice and advocacy. CCNCTO hosted two very insightful forums discussing Asian representation in the media and employment. We also co-presented films that were representative of our diverse Chinese population. The barriers Chinese immigrants face in terms of social and economic integration remain important policy concerns to CCNCTO. We hosted a public forum to address issues of employment and social cohesion facing Chinese skilled immigrants. At this 25th anniversary celebration, we want to thank all our former and present staff members, board members and volunteers. In the next 25 years and beyond, CCNC Toronto Chapter will continue to be a strong advocate for social justice and political awareness with respect to human rights.

25年來,全加華人協進會(平權會)(CCNC)一直堅持為多倫多分會(CCNCTO)接受新的挑戰並取得了成就。我們的董事會,義工和會員的承諾證明了普通民眾的擁護是我們力量的最大源泉。CCNCTO榮獲了2005年多市 William P. Hubbard 種族關係獎。我們的成功是建立在義工,董事會,員工和社區伙伴的相互依賴的基礎上的,我們對社會公義和人權持有共同的觀點。會見新上任的多倫多警察局長Bill Blair是我們新一年工作的成功開始,我們就種族歧視的典型事件發表了我方的見解和立場,用以回應大麻種植操作一文。此次行動的結果是CCNCTO在警察局長諮詢委員會中贏得了一席之地。CCNCTO非常關注勞工和人權問題。我們為華裔車衣女工舉辦了藝術品拍賣會和圖片展覽,目的是提高公眾對勞工權利問題的認識。CCNCTO鼓勵加拿大華裔青年參與和擁擠社會問題的改善工作。美猴王小組(MKC)就是看到了年青人對社會公義有興趣并具有推動力而組建的。CCNCTO主辦了兩次見解極為深刻的討論會,會議討論了亞裔人士在媒體和就業方面的代表地位。我們還共同放映了表現華人口多元化的電影。華裔移民所面臨的社會和經濟綜合障礙依然是CCNCTO政策關注的重心。為此,我們組織了一次公眾論壇,指出了中國技術移民面對的就業和社會凝聚力問題。在這個25周年紀念的盛典上,我們要感謝所有過去和現在的員工,董事會成員以及義工們。在下一個25年及25年後,CCNC多倫多分會將堅持在尊重人權的前提下,爭取社會公義,提高公眾對政治的認識。

Redress / National

CCNC has fought for redress of the Chinese Head Tax and Chinese Exclusion Act for more than 20 years. Since 1984, more than 4,000 claimants including Head Tax payers and their families have registered with CCNC and our local chapters. We are mandated to seek redress based on four principles: we seek a Parliamentary acknowledgement, letter of regret, individual financial compensation and community compensation. This year has been a busy one on the redress file. This year, CCNC supported the creation of the Ontario Coalition of Chinese Head Tax Payers and Families. CCNC continues to support the Head Tax Payers and their families in lobbying the government and raising public awareness around this important issue. This past summer, CCNC and its chapters across Canada supported Mr. Gim Wong's Ride for Redress. At the age of 1982 Gim Wong rode across Canada on his motorcycle to raise awareness of the head tax redress issue starting off from Victoria BC and reaching Ottawa in time for Canada Day. While the fight for redress is far from over, the Canadian Government continues to ignore the wishes of the Head Tax payers and their families. The government has announced a $25 million fund for commemorative and educational projects to address historical injustices. However, in order to access these funds, groups must first agree to the Government's preconditions of "NO apology" and "NO individual compensation." CCNC and the Head Tax payer coalitions have maintained their position true redress includes a sincere statement of regret and individual financial compensation. We must address our past mistakes in order to build an equal just society for all Canadians.

CCNC自成立以來就一直為平反人頭稅而奔走呼號，CCNC的25周年紀念也標誌著平反人頭稅這場鬥爭整整持續了25個年頭。上個世紀八十年代，有超過4000名的人頭稅苦主及其家庭成員在全加各個分會注冊登記，並委任CCNC為其人頭稅的平反而效力。經過協商大家一致認同，真正意義上的平反必須遵循兩項原則：第一，政府出面道歉；第二，個人得到賠償。可是，二十多年過去了，政府換了一屆又一屆，活在世上的人頭稅苦主也一年比一年少。直到去年，平反問題依然遭到政府的廣泛忽略。然而今年卻是個例外，平反問題終於有了轉機。今年年初，CCNC協助創建了安省華裔人頭稅苦主聯盟。與俾斯省和魁省的聯盟一樣，這個聯盟的成員是人頭稅的苦主或是其后代。CCNC正奮力支持各聯盟向政府游說和喚起公眾的良知，爭取讓人頭稅問題得到談判的機會。為了讓公眾更好地了解平反問題，CCNC以及全加各分會大力支持名為Gim Wong之行：爭取平反的活動。今年夏天，Gim Wong騎著他的摩托車橫穿加拿大，實現了他為爭取平反人頭稅而橫穿加拿大的畢生夢想。平反的鬥爭仍未結束，政府對人頭稅的苦主和CCNC依然採取置之不理的態度。雖然，政府已經宣佈撥款給教育和紀念歷史上遭受過不公正待遇的少數社群，但是想要拿到這筆資金，首先得同意無道歉和無個人補償的苛刻條件。CCNC和人頭稅苦主聯盟對此保持其一貫的堅定立場：真正的平反必須遵循承認錯誤和個人補償這兩項原則。缺少了這兩項原則，就沒有真正意義的平反，也失去了真正的公義。

Monkey King Collective / Toronto

Monkey King Collective (MKC) is Toronto Chapter's flagship youth section. Public and youth education in media literacy and Chinese Canadian history continue to feature prominently in the Toronto Chapter's activities. Various panel discussions and public film screening events were held to heighten public and youth awareness of media issues in the age of information. In November 2004 we held a highly successful panel titled "Can We Do It With an Oriental Accent" which explored the obstacles young Asian-Canadians face in pursuing a career in mainstream media. Looking ahead, the Monkey King Collective will continue its youth education and outreach program through a film screening series and workshops that educate and stimulate discussions on Chinese Canadian history. Moreover, riding on the success of the "Chinese Canadian Youth Speak Out!" student newsletter project from the previous year, the MKC will expand on this project by partnering with established Chinese and mainstream media channels. Youths from the Toronto area will continue to receive encouragement from the Toronto Chapter to tell their own stories and express their unique perspectives through the use of print, video and audio media.

美猴王小組(MKC)是全加華人協進會(平權會)多倫多分會(CCNCTO)悉心培植的主力青年小組。對公眾和年青人進行媒體文化及加拿大華人歷史的教育仍舊是多倫多分會活動的顯著特色。MKC舉辦了各種各樣的小組討論會和電影公映活動來提高公眾和年青人對信息時代的媒體論點的認識。在2004年11月份, CCNCTO開展了一次非常成功的小組討論會, 主題是 "Can We Do It With an Oriental Accent" ("我們能否用東方口音做(採訪))"。這次討論會探討了加拿大亞裔青年在主流媒體謀求事業的過程中所面臨的障礙。

展望未來, 美猴王小組將通過一系列電影放映和講座來教育和激發年青人對加拿大華人歷史的討論, 並以此堅持它們對年青人的教育工作 and 擴展活動內容。此外, 鑒於上一年度學生通訊報導專題 "Chinese Canadian Youth Speak Out" ("華裔青年請站出來!") 的成功, MKC將與長期合作的華人和主流媒體渠道一起擴展這一專題。多倫多分會將繼續鼓勵多倫多地區的年輕人利用宣傳冊, 電視及廣播等媒體講述他們自己的故事和表達他們獨特的見解。

✦ Immigration / National

This year CCNC's Immigration Committee made policy submissions to the Standing Committee on Citizenship and Immigration on three areas of concern to our community: Family Reunification, Citizenship and Recognition of International Experience and Credentials. Some of the issues we raised included: the need to reduce extreme delays for processing of parental sponsorship applications; concerns about proposed increased powers to revoke citizenship without basic procedural rights; and the ongoing problem of accreditation of foreign trained professionals. CCNC has worked hard over the last 25 years in advocating for a better immigration system. We fought for the rights of Chinese students to remain in Canada after the Tiananmen protests in 1989, advocated for the rights of detained boat migrants in 1999, and have consistently lobbied for 25 years to reduce systemic barriers and discrimination against our community.

今年, CCNC的移民委員會向公民和移民常務委員會就本社群所重視的三個方面提交了政策方案, 即: 家庭團聚, 公民法案, 和國外經驗與資格認證。家庭團聚: 我們熱切注視以下問題的動向: 過度延長父母擔保人資格的審核時間; 家庭成員的擔保責任期過長; 配偶擔保人的資格評估存在體系上的問題; 及有必要擴大對“家屬類別”的定義來體現本社群對家屬的實際定義。另外, 我們還反復強調摒棄登陸費合的法地位和必要性, 因為這種現代“人頭稅”給家庭團聚設置了另一道障礙。公民法案: CCNC重申對Bill C-18公民法議案的關注。此議案欲賜予部長新的權利, 以較少的法律程序去取消或廢除公民資格。國外資格認證: CCNC建議給申請移民人士提供更多的信息, 使他們在移民之前對加拿大的就業市場有較充分的了解; 給專業規章的制定機構增加資源, 以協助他們進行資格認證的評估; 給移民安居服務增加資源, 以幫助新移民更快地溶入加國社會。

✦ Chinese Canadian National Youth Council / National

For an organization that was originally started by Chinese Canadian students, the Chinese Canadian National Council has continued to involve active youth participation. This year marks the 25th anniversary for the organization; it is also the first for some avant-garde youth initiatives. Designed to empower youth activism in the public sector, we took pride in launching our first youth Internship Program at CCNC. During the summer of 2005, the Youth Council invited fifteen university students to embark on an internship that would challenge their practical knowledge in events/project planning, public relations, media communications, marketing, and analyzing public policies. We resulted in the development of an essential skills program for youth who are ready to lead tomorrow's world. The Internship Program is expected to resume in summer of 2006, please check our website for updates.

爲了最早由加拿大華裔學生發起的組織, 全加華人協進會一直堅持潛心於鼓勵年輕人的積極參與。今年是CCNC的25周年紀念, 也是部分青年先鋒活動開始的第一個年頭。本著加強青年在一些社會公眾方面的能力, 我們自豪地在CCNC發動了首次青年實習計劃。在2005年夏季, 青年理事會邀請了15名大學生來從事實習, 這是對他們在活動/項目計劃, 公共關係, 媒體通訊, 市場學, 以及公眾政策認識等應用知識的一個挑戰。本次計劃的成果在於, 爲那些已經準備好領導明日世界的年青人開發了基本技能訓練的項目。這個實習計劃有望在2006年再次進行, 敬請到我們的網點查詢最新信息。

Homeworkers' Association / Toronto

Homeworkers' Association (HWA) was formed in May 1992 as an organization to support immigrant women who sew garments at home. Housed under the CCNC Toronto Chapter, HWA has developed many unique events and activities to serve its members' needs and continues to build its membership. The Chinese Canadian women garment workers continue to face systemic barriers, discrimination and multiple forms of human rights violations in the labour force. With the impact of globalization, clothing manufacturers have downsized resulting in factory jobs in the garment industry being outsourced to foreign countries. HWA, with the support of CCNCTO, has organized leadership and ESL training, public forums and workshops on labour issues and women's health. We also work in partnership with HWA to increase public awareness garment homeworkers through such lively events as an art auction, a photo exhibit at Pacific Mall and an upcoming book launch in the Fall.

家庭車衣工人聯誼會(HWA)成立於1992年5月,它是一個支持在家里做車衣工作的移民婦女的組織。在全加華人協進會(平權會)多倫多分會(CCNCTO)的領導下, HWA針對不同問題開展了很多與之相應的活動,目的是為會員提供更好的服務和繼續吸納更多會員。然而,加拿大華裔車衣女工仍舊在現有的勞動體制下面臨著種種障礙,歧視和各種形式的人權侵犯。更令人擔憂的是,在全球化的沖擊下服裝製造業不斷走下坡路,從而導致服裝工業的工廠工作被外判給其他國家。為了改善這種狀況,在CCNCTO的鼎力支持下, HWA開辦了領導能力和ESL的培訓,組織了各種公共論壇,以及開展了有關勞工問題和婦女健康的講座。另外,為了加強公眾對家庭車衣工人工作現狀的了解, CCNCTO還與HWA聯合舉辦了一系列別開生面的活動,例如:藝術拍賣會,在太古廣場舉行的圖片展覽,還有這個秋季舉行的新書發行會。

Research and Social Planning Committee / Toronto

The Research and Social Planning committee is responsible for the development and co-ordination of research projects related to systemic barriers found in employment, civic participation, education, and access to public institutions. We believe in using community-based research approach to support our advocacy work. Over the past year CCNCTO has worked with many community and academic partners as well as other civic organizations to address social issues facing Chinese immigrants and other visible minority groups. CCNCTO co-hosted a public forum with our academic partner to address Employment and Social Cohesion issues facing Chinese skilled immigrants. The public forum was well attended and received wide media coverage. CCNCTO is a strong advocate for the welfare of seniors in the Chinese community. CCNC Toronto Chapter is a founding member of the Toronto Social Development Network and continues to pursue further research on social planning and policy issues in the community.

研究與社會計劃委員會專門負責發展和協調有關存在系統性障礙的就業,市政參與,教育,及公共設施使用權等研究項目。全加華人協進會(平權會)多倫多分會(CCNCTO)相信基於社區的研究方法有益於我們的政治主張工作。CCNCTO在過去的一年里曾與許多團體和學術伙伴及其他市民組織一起合作,並指出中國移民和其他少數族群共同面對的社會問題。CCNCTO和我們的學術伙伴共同主持了一次公眾論壇,就中國技術移民所面臨的就業和社會凝聚力問題進行了探討。此次論壇不僅有很多人參加,并被媒體廣泛報導。CCNCTO強烈提倡對華人社群老年人福利的重視。CCNCTO是多倫多社會發展聯會的成員之一,並將對社區的社會計劃與政策問題繼續展開進一步的研究。

Issues

✦ Pan Asian / National

CCNC has been busy over the last year in preparation for this year's Pan Asian Canadian Network Conference, to be held in Toronto on November 26 and 27, 2005. The project aims at building a stronger network of Asian Canadian anti-racism and human rights groups in order to improve our ability to advocate for our communities. The Conference is designed to build on the work started at our previous national Pan Asian Canadian conference, "Our Voices, Our Strategies", which was held in Vancouver in 2002. This historic conference provided an opportunity for Asian Canadian anti-racism activists to come together to share our strategies on common issues. This year's conference is focused on building the infrastructure for the network and defining a concrete action plan on issues that were identified as priorities for our communities, including immigration/security, employment, media and racial profiling.

全加華人協進會(平權會) (CCNC)去年一直在忙於籌備今年的全亞裔加人網絡討論會，會議將於2005年11月26和27日在多倫多召開。此項計劃的目的是建立一個更強大的加拿大亞裔反種族歧視網絡和人權團體，以提高我們為本社群服務的能力。本屆討論會的設計建立在上屆全亞裔加人網絡討論會的工作基礎上。上屆會議主題為“我們的心聲，我們的策略”，於2002年在溫哥華舉行。這個具有歷史意義的會議為加拿大亞裔反種族歧視的行動人士們提供了一個機會，即一起探討解決共同問題上的策略。本屆討論會致力於建立網絡的基礎構架，並為我們社區已確定的重要問題制定具體的行動計劃，包括移民，安全，就業，媒體和種族各方面的問題。

✦ Chinese Canadian Culture Online Project / National

In the ever growing need to explore the diasporas of Chinese Canadian Culture, CCNC is delighted to present the Chinese Canadian Culture Online Project (CCCOP). Designed to educate and reflect our heritage and culture, CCCOP delivers a fusion of new media technology and traditional forms of art. Resulting in a dynamic website filled with pictures, songs, and videos from rising divas like Moulann, and social contemporary artists like May Chew and Anice Wong. From the successful feedback we have received during our initial launch, we plan to continue gathering material from artists across Canada in order to provide exposure that would not normally be available. We hope projects like these will promote a more real sense of Chinese Canadian identity and counter negative stereotypes. Come check out the site at www.ccnc.ca/culture.

探索加拿大的華人文化的需要在不斷增長，為此，全加華人協進會(平權會) (CCNC) 欣喜地向各位介紹加拿大華人文化上線工程 (CCCOP)。為了推廣和反映我們的傳統與文化，CCCOP 在設計上採用了新的傳媒技術來表現傳統形式的藝術。一個完美的網點由此應運而生了，它滿載內容詳盡的圖片，歌曲和錄相。作品來自如歌劇新星 Moulann 和當代社會藝術家 May Chew 與 Anice Wong 等藝人。鑒於自開辦以來收到的良好反饋，我們計劃繼續匯集全加拿大藝術家的作品，向人們展示普通媒介中難得一見的藝術品。希望諸如此類的文化工程可以讓我們分享作為加國華人的真實感受，同時反對消極陳腐的觀念。但是，百聞不如一見，請親自到我們的網點 www.ccnc.ca/culture 查閱吧。

CAW: A different kind of union

Congratulations On Making a Real Difference

The Canadian Auto Workers union and its 265,000 members from coast to coast congratulate the Chinese Canadian National Council on making a difference in our communities.

The Chinese Canadian National Council's objectives of building fairness, equity and racial harmony are goals shared by the CAW. The Union is dedicated to building barrier-free workplaces and through the practice of social-unionism, it also strives to create a barrier-free society for all Canadians.

Working together, organizations such as the CAW and the CCNC are helping to advance the cause of social justice. Along with other like-minded groups they are raising awareness of the work that remains to be done as we all seek to build more fair and equitable communities.

Congratulations on making a real difference in our communities and in our country.

High Stakes Literacy Test / Toronto

CCNCTO continues to take an interest in education issues and is active in a variety of activities that support equity in education. Sharing our concern of inadequate funding for education with other advocacy groups, CCNCTO is especially concerned with the negative impact the current funding formula holds for English as a Second Language (ESL) learners. In particular, CCNCTO has learned through contact with many ESL students, that the Grade 10 Literacy Test poses difficulty for many immigrant students learning English. Without successfully passing the Literacy Test, students are unable to graduate high school. However, since many schools do not have adequate support, including ESL classes nor ESL teachers to help these students succeed; the current education structure penalizes students for the system's shortcomings. CCNCTO is planning an event to investigate and call for changes in the practice of the Grade 10 Literacy Test, in order to make education more accessible to ESL and special needs students.

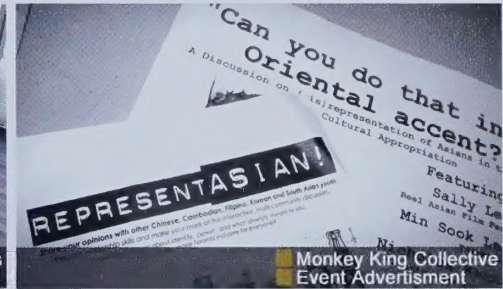

全加華人協進會(平權會)多倫多分會(CCNCTO)仍然熱衷於教育問題, 並積極參與各種支持平等教育的活動。CCNCTO和其他團體一樣, 對教育資金的不足表示關注, 尤其關注現行的撥款方案對英語為第二語言(ESL)的學生所帶來的負面影響。特別要指出的是, 通過向許多ESL學生進行深入了解後, CCNCTO發現第十級的讀寫能力測試給很多正在努力學習英語的移民學生造成了困難。而不能成功通過這個讀寫能力測試, 就意味著學生們無法高中畢業。然而, 許多學校並沒有為這些學生提供合理的輔助, 例如ESL課程設置不足和缺少ESL老師, 缺乏此類必要的幫助, 學生們實在難以通過測試。可見, 現行的教育體制是有缺陷的, 而受到懲罰的卻是無辜的學生。為此, CCNCTO正計劃採取行動進行研究, 並呼籲修改第十級讀寫能力測試的實施方案, 以確保ESL學生和其他有特殊需求的學生能平等地接受更好的教育。

Anti-Racism Committee / National

We have an impressive history of achieving success in advocacy and education work. The year 2004-5 is no exception. For the Anti-Racism Committee, the Toronto Chapter has been invited by the Toronto Police Chief join his Advisory Council to fight against racial profiling and institutional racism. This was in direct result of the Toronto Chapter taking a strong stance against a comment made to the Toronto Star by a senior police officer, linking marijuana grow operations to Mainland Chinese immigrants. Meanwhile, we continue to take part in policy formulation and advocacy actively through our involvement with the City of Toronto Working Group on Immigrant and Refugee Issues, the Alternative Planning Group, the Social Development Network, and the Chinese Inter-Agency Network.

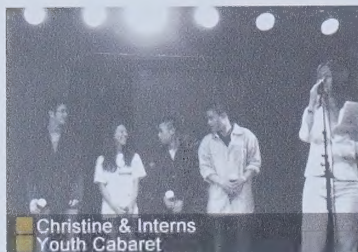

全加華人協進會(平權會)多倫多分會(CCNCTO)致力完成所倡導的主張和教育工作的輝煌歷程, 給人留下了深刻印象。2004-2005 年度也不例外。特別值得一提的成就是: 由於反種族歧視委員會為堅持自己一貫的立場而據理力爭, CCNCTO得以被多倫多警察局長邀請到他的諮詢委員會中, 參與打擊種族歧視的現象和制度。事因一名高級警官在多倫多星報上發表了歧視性評論, 文章中他把大麻的種植行為和中國大陸移民聯繫在一起。CCNCTO對此言論堅決表示反對, 結果為自己在警察局長諮詢委員會贏得了一席之地。在這一年里, 我們還繼續積極地參與發表政見和擁護所倡導的主張, 包括參與移民和難民問題多倫多市政工作組, Alternative Planning Group (選擇方案組), 社會發展網絡, 和華人社區服務聯會所。

🌟 Harbourfront Dim Sum Festival / National

CCNC Youth Council produced two exciting events for Dim Sum: Sampling Contemporary Chinese Culture at Harbourfront Centre in summer 2005. These two free events included performances and presentations from youth artists in celebration of Chinese Canadian culture as well as an interactive showcase of Chinese Canadian history. Our 2nd annual Youth Cabaret brought together singers, writers, and fashion designers from the community in expressing their identity as youths and Chinese Canadians. The Youth Perspectives Forum aimed to increase awareness of current issues relating to the Chinese Canadian community and featured guest speakers in a panel discussion hosted by Carsey Yee. The Dim Sum Festival was made possible by the Youth Council's Internship Program in partnership with Harbourfront Centre.

🌟 Asian Canadians for Equal Marriage / National & Toronto

CCNCTO was one of the founders of Asian Canadians for Equal Marriage (ACFEM). ACFEM is a coalition of non-partisan, multi-faith organizations and individuals from diverse Asian Canadian communities that actively support human rights and equality including that of same-sex marriage. Many Asian Canadians unequivocally support the political movement for same-sex marriage. It is crucial that their voices be heard in this debate as proponents to this issue of equality and justice for sexual minorities. ACFEM went to the Supreme Court in Ottawa to support lawyers arguing for legal recognition of same-sex marriages. ACFEM also organized many press conferences to voice the support of the ethnic community for same-sex marriage rights for gays and lesbians in Canada. ACFEM was and is a pivotal voice in the fight for same-sex marriage recognition.

ChineseCanadianNationalCouncil Chapters

■ Celebrating 25 years of advocacy by 27
■ local chapters in a strong national network.

Chinese Canadian National Council

For its 25th Anniversary year, the CCNC National office has been very busy. At the beginning of the year, we organized regional consultations for the Pan Asian Network. These regional consultations included coordinating with our chapters and their local partners, to connect with one another and start developing local Pan Asian networks in 5 different regions across Canada. Further into the year, the HeadTax Redress campaign started to pick up momentum again with a headtax payers' forum that was held in March. Since then, the Ontario Coalition of Chinese Headtax Payers and families was formed and is spearheading the local Toronto and Ontario campaigns. In the summer, we coordinated the first Health and Diversity Conference, bringing together service providers from across Canada, highlighting the intersections between access to health care, racism, and discrimination. CCNC is also organizing the 2nd Pan Asian Conference in Toronto for November 2005. This is a follow-up and network development opportunity for organizations across Canada to determine the model for the Pan Asian Network.

Chinese Canadian Toronto Chapter

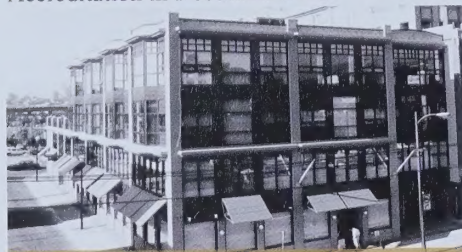

CCNC Toronto Chapter is a direct offspring of the Toronto Ad Hoc Committee Against W5. The Toronto Chapter of CCNC was established in 1980. Our mission is to promote equity, social justice, inclusive civic participation, and respect for diversity. We achieve this by conducting activities in the areas of: public education, youth engagement, systemic advocacy, community development and coalition building as well as providing assistance to individuals facing discrimination. CCNCTO has been a leading advocate for human rights over the past 25 years and will continue to be at the forefront fighting against racism and discrimination for the Chinese Canadians in Toronto. CCNCTO is a recipient of the 2005 City of Toronto William P. Hubbard Award for Race Relations. 2005 has been a tremendous year of new challenges and achievements for the Toronto Chapter of CCNC. In addition to celebrating our 25th anniversary, we also celebrate one year in our new home at 215 Spadina Ave and it has been an incredible capacity building experience.

S.U.C.C.E.S.S.

Founded in 1973, S.U.C.C.E.S.S. is a non-profit charitable organization. It is now one of the largest immigration and social service agencies in British Columbia. Our mandate is to promote the well being of Canadians and immigrants so that they may become productive members of our multicultural society. S.U.C.C.E.S.S. offers a diverse range of programs including social, educational and health services, business and community development, and advocacy. It also provides quality health care for seniors.

The S.U.C.C.E.S.S. Simon K.Y. Lee Seniors Care Home opened in July 2002, and the Chieng's Adult Day Centre commenced operation in January 2003. Approximately 60% of the S.U.C.C.E.S.S. annual operating fund comes from the government. The remainder is raised through donations and annual fundraising events, namely the Walk with the Dragon and the Gala. Amongst its many achievements, S.U.C.C.E.S.S. received the Citation for Citizenship Award in 1994 and was accredited by the Council on Accreditation in December 2003.

Association of Chinese Canadians for Equality and Solidarity (ACCESS) (華裔加人平權共進會) formerly known as the Vancouver Association of Chinese Canadians (溫哥華華裔加人協) was founded in 1992 as an anti-racism and human rights non-profit association, and has approximately 300 members. Its activities have included participating in the World Conference Against Racism; sponsoring the Chinese Settlement Project, a front-line settlement and referral service for refugees, refugee claimants, and migrants; Chinese head-tax redress; and other human rights issues. ACCESS is the Vancouver chapter member of Chinese Canadian National Council.

Chinese Canadian National Council London

The London Chapter of CCNC was officially established in 1981, but an ad hoc committee headed by a group of active community members, was already organized in 1980 to lend support to the central committee in Toronto during the W5 affair. A steering committee was formed afterward to initiate the establishment of this local chapter. And in October 1981, the London Chapter came into existence. And the rest, as they say, is history. Supported practically by all citizens of Chinese extraction, the London Chapter quickly became the umbrella organization of the City of London, assuming the leading role in social activities and functions. The membership grew rapidly and the organization soon became the flagship of public affairs that are Chinese-related and which take place in the City of London and the surrounding areas.

Chinese Canadian National Council Ottawa

CCNC-Ottawa activities have evolved over the years but continues to cover the areas of media monitoring, race relations, education, legislative oversight and culture. CCNC-Ottawa directors have served on a variety of media, policing, education, race relations, health and other organizations in an effort to build bridges and understanding between the Chinese Canadian community and the larger community in Ottawa.

Redress Rally, 2002

The local chapter continues to work with the national office and other CCNC chapters on national issues, while also achieving a broader influence by working with government and non-government bodies. As with any community organization, new plans are constantly being developed and sought out. If you share the ideals of the CCNC and wish to become part of our organization, please join us. Cultural Chinese Association

The Chinese Cultural Association of New Brunswick (CCANB) is a non-profit organization with major objectives of promoting Chinese cultural and cross-cultural understanding. Its membership is open to all New Brunswick residents. CCANB was established in 1977, with a language school following soon afterwards. The Chinese language school operates every Sunday afternoon during the regular school year.

Canada Day Parade 2005

Chinese language classes are offered to everyone with or without a background in Mandarin or Cantonese. Cultural and extra-curricular activities such as dance, sport, cooking and music are also offered. CCANB has been active in the community, taking part in various festivals. The association also organizes various gala performances throughout the year, including an annual Christmas dinner and Chinese New Year celebration.

Chinese Canadian Association

The Chinese community on Prince Edward Island has over one hundred years of history. On November 8, 1986, the Association was established and Robert Lam was the inaugural president of the Association. During the following years, the organization has been active in many activities, supported by the relatively small but cohesive Chinese community of about 300 people. The association functioned mainly as the instrument for assisting members, sharing Chinese heritage and promoting mutual appreciation among the Chinese community and others. The PEI Association took part in a nation-wide campaign (1984-1994) to ask the government to redress the Chinese Exclusion Act and Head Tax, in local activities such as the Heritage Fall Festivals, International Teahouses and International Days for the Elimination of Racial Discrimination, and the Dragon Boat Regatta. In addition, it has sponsored many cultural activities including Chinese music festival, Chinese language school and Chinese New Year celebrations.

Chinese Canadian Association

Recognizing Chinese Canadian Community Leaders

Olivia Chow

Olivia Chow is a politician with a legacy of achievement and one of the most extraordinary careers in Canadian political life. She has worked to create a more liveable and dynamic city through her leadership and dedication to improve economic opportunity, eradicate child poverty, enhance the environment and waterfront, and strengthen social services, immigrant services, community programs, child care, affordable housing and affordable public transit – while promoting the arts, culture and rich diversity that set Toronto apart.

First elected as a school trustee in 1985, Olivia won as a Metro Councillor in 1991 – breaking new ground as the first Asian woman elected at the municipal level in Toronto. Since Toronto's amalgamation in 1997, she has been elected and re-elected three times as City Councillor for the Trinity Spadina ward in downtown Toronto – and has had the rare distinction of being voted best City Councillor seven times by the readers of NOW magazine and best local politician four times by readers of Eye magazine.

As she celebrates 20 years as a strong political voice, she enters her third decade in public life, Olivia Chow is just beginning to hit her stride. The journey is ongoing – Olivia's quest for a better society and her determination to make a difference continue.

Recognizing Chinese Canadian Community Leaders

Nicholas Keung

Nicholas Keung immigrated to Canada from Hong Kong in 1994. Like most new immigrants having difficulties finding employment, Nicholas spent several months working as counter help at a restaurant before becoming a reporter at the Singtao Daily newspaper. Nicholas was on general assignment for 7 years at The Toronto Star before becoming a reporter on immigration and diversity. Being a journalist from a minority background and an immigrant, Nicholas has to work twice as hard to break the stereotypes. Nicholas overcame the language challenge by doing lots of preparation before interviews, taking classes and memorizing words from dictionary and reading. Nicholas is making a difference by bringing different voices in particular the ethnic communities to the newspaper. He also hopes to make it more inclusive in coverage. Nicholas believes the foundation is to build a just society where everyone is equal.

25 Years 全加華人協進會(平權會)
1980-2005 Chinese Canadian National Council

Lilian was born and raised in Hong Kong. She graduated from the University of Hong Kong with a B.A. in psychology in 1967, and then received a postgraduate diploma in social work in 1968. In 1979, Lilian earned her Master's degree in Social Policies, Planning and Community Development from the University of British Columbia.

In 1988, Lilian became the Executive Director of S.U.C.C.E.S.S., a non-profit charitable organization with the mandate to assist newcomers to overcome language and cultural barriers. Under her able leadership, she transformed S.U.C.C.E.S.S. from a small storefront office in Chinatown into one of the largest social service agencies in B.C. S.U.C.C.E.S.S. grew to a staff of 350 people with 9,000 volunteers and 12 offices in the Lower Mainland.

Lilian was always at the forefront of emerging social issues, and a tireless champion of others. She was compassionate and understanding, giving people equal consideration whether she was meeting with the Prime Minister or with the most recent arriving immigrant.

As a true leader, Lilian gave generously of herself, setting an example of selfless service that touched countless lives. She was always humble and would credit others for her many accomplishments.

In recognition of her work, Lilian received the 1991 Courvoisier Leadership Award and the Vancouver Multicultural Society's Distinguished Service Award. She was awarded the Canadian 125th Anniversary Confederation Medal in 1992 for her contribution to the community and the nation.

Lilian was named by Vancouver Sun as one of the 25 most influential people in B.C. in 1998. She received the 1999 YWCA Women of Distinction Award and then the Citation for Citizenship by Citizenship and Immigration Canada in 2001. In 2002, she was named by Vancouver Magazine as one of the fifty most influential people in B.C. On Sept. 16, 2005, Lilian will be honored by the Vancouver Board of Trade with a 2005 Spirit of Vancouver Award.

每當想起陶黃彥斌女士，腦海中自然會浮現這些形容字句：慈愛寬容、堅毅不移、溫柔謙遜。對於幫助有需要的人，陶太確實是高瞻遠矚。自幼以來，她已懷著滿腔熱誠，這股樂於助人的精神，燃亮了她的一生。陶太於香港出生及成長，其後入讀香港大學，主修心理學，在1967年畢業，獲頒授(榮譽)文學士學位，並在1968年取得社會工作深造文憑；其後更在卑詩大學修讀社會政策、計劃及社區發展碩士課程，在1979年獲頒授碩士學位。

陶太在1988年成為中僑互助會的行政總裁。中僑互助會是一個非牟利慈善機構，以協助加國新移民跨越語言及文化障礙為服務宗旨。在陶太的超卓領導下，中僑互助會從華埠一個狹小的辦事處，逐漸成為卑詩省最大規模的社會服務機構之一，目前有350位職員、義工多達9,000人，在低陸平原分別設有12個辦事處。

陶太對社會上呈現的種種議題，往往瞭如指掌，經常盡心竭力，不辭勞苦地為別人謀求幸福。她以愛待人、常存關懷體諒的心，不論是與國家總理或是新抵埗移民見面，陶太也同樣重視，一視同仁。

作為一個真摯無私的領袖，陶太甘願全然獻出自己，因而感動了無數人的心，也樹立了美好的楷模。她為人謙懷敦厚，雖然締造了許多卓越的成就，卻從不誇耀自己，只會讚賞他人。

在1991年，陶太獲頒「卓越領袖獎」，並獲《溫哥華多元文化協會》頒發「傑出服務獎」，以表揚她在公共服務方面的卓越工作。在1992年，她獲頒「加拿大125週年紀念勳章」，以嘉許她對社區及加國的貢獻。
